A THEATRE EXPERIENCE LIKE NO OTHER OFFERED IN THE MIDWEST.
GREAT RIVER
SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL

SEASON TWELVE
JUNE 24-AUGUST 2, 2015

Lead Teacher Tarah Flanagan has taught at Webster University's Conservatory and the Georgia State University Summer Shakespeare Intensive. Flanagan has performed in New York theatres and off-Broadway. Her regional theatre experiences include productions at Actor's Theatre of Louisville, Alabama Shakespeare Festival, Public Theatre of Maine, Studio Arena Theatre, and more.

SHAKESPEARE FOR YOUNG ACTORS

Professional acting company members will introduce young actors to the highs and lows of a Shakespeare play through this engaging three-week workshop. SYA participants will explore acting techniques beginning by breaking down the language and interpreting the original meaning. Movement and creative improvisation are vital components of the workshop. Students will learn to use their body and voice to create dynamic characters as they prepare for a staged performance of MacBeth.

Dates:
Tuesday – Saturday
July 7-25, 2015
10:00 am – 4:00 pm daily

Performance of MacBeth: Sunday,
July 26 at 7:00 pm

For students who have completed 6th through 12th grade by July 2015.

Some discounts and scholarships are available.

Register before May 1, 2015 for an automatic $50 discount.

SHAKESPEARE FOR YOUNG DESIGNERS

Professional designers and technical theatre staff will lead students through the visualization, design, and realization of a theatre production. SYD participants will dissect a play from a designer's perspective. Students will use collage, drawing, and model-making to express the themes and vision for a production, which they will share at the portfolio showcase. The design students will create all technical aspects for the production of MacBeth.

Dates:
Tuesday – Saturday
July 7-25, 2015
10:00 am – 4:00 pm daily

Performance of MacBeth: Sunday
